PRO SE CLERK'S OFFICE:

ASSISTANCE FOR PRO SE PARTIES

IN ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

At least one party in this adversary proceeding does not have or no longer has an attorney representing them in the adversary proceeding. Unless and until that party obtains an attorney to represent them, they are considered "pro se". Parties who are pro se may obtain information about the bankruptcy process and the filing requirements from the Pro Se Clerk's Office. The Pro Se Clerk can answer some basic questions about the process and procedures in adversary proceedings.

The Pro Se Clerk can provide Information and guidance, but not legal advice. No one from the Clerk's office can provide legal advice. Should you need legal representation, referrals can be made to an appropriate service. In fact, you are encouraged to consult the Pro Se Clerk regarding a referral. If you meet certain financial criteria, you may be eligible to participate in the Court's Pro Bono Adversary Proceeding Program. Contact the Pro Se Clerk for more information.
